Works of Scriabin and Rachmaninoff

Nathan Carterette, piano

Program

Sonata (Op. 68, No. 9) "Black Mass" Alexander Scriabin (1872 - 1915)

Vers la flamme (Op. 72) Alexander Scriabin

Sonata (Op. 28, No. 1) Sergei Rachmaninoff (1873 - 1943)

I. Allegro moderato

II. Lento

III. Allegro molto

Hailed as "wonderfully poetic," (Westfalen Post), "exuberant yet sensitive," (Pittsburgh Post-Gazette) and "very compelling in his power and presence" (International Composer), Nathan Carterette has distinguished himself in the concert world by performing a huge range of works from Elizabethan keyboard music to music written today. His innovative, approachable 'Poets of the Piano' has inspired audiences to approach unfamiliar music with open ears, and familiar music with new appreciation. Appearing as soloist, Nathan has been presented in such venues as Weill Recital Hall and the Yamaha Piano Salon of New York City, the Gasteig in Munich, the Museum für Kunst und Gewerbe of Hamburg, Cleveland's Trinity Cathedral, and Pittsburgh's Rodef Shalom; in several universities such as the Berklee School of Music, Cleveland Institute of Music, Baldwin Wallace Conservatory, Busan National University of South Korea, and Carnegie Mellon. Educated at Yale University, where he studied with Boris Berman, and University of Missouri-Kansas City, where he studied with Robert Weirich, Nathan began his piano studies at the age of eleven with Cleveland's legendary Birute and Anthony Smetona. A chance encounter in 2004 with Welsh composer-pianist Dafydd Llywelyn led to an invitation for intensive private study in Munich, where Nathan studied and performed for three years.
