Jody Guinn has made northeast Ohio her professional home for nearly 40 years. Currently, she is playing 2nd harp with the Cleveland Orchestra, including domestic and international tours. She recently retired from her post as principal harp of the Akron Symphony Orchestra after 38 seasons. For many years she played for the Cleveland Ballet, the Cleveland Opera, and the Ohio Chamber Orchestra. Other orchestras in which she has appeared include Baltimore, Cincinnati, Detroit, Erie, Florida, Houston, Philadelphia, and ProMusica Columbus. She also can be heard in several Decca and Telarc recordings with the Cleveland Orchestra and the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, respectively. Notable artists with whom Jody has performed include the Three Tenors, Barry Manilow, Ray Charles, Josh Groban, the Beach Boys, The Who, and tenor Andrea Bocelli.

Jody is a founding member of the Salzedo Harp Duo, along with her colleague Nancy Lendrim of the Toledo Symphony. The Duo has released three record albums on the Azica Label: “Short Stories” (the music of Carlos Salzedo), “Simple Gifts” (Malaguena and other popular requests) and “Clair de Noel” (Christmas and Holiday music for two harps). Together they have given concerts across the country and have appeared at the World Harp Congresses of 2002 and 2008. Their recording of Debussy's “Clair de lune” was heard on an episode of the popular CBS daytime soap opera, “The Young and the Restless.”

Jody received her Bachelor of Music degree in Music Education from Colorado State University under the tutelage of Suzann Davids. She received her Master of Music degree in Harp Performance from the Cleveland Institute of Music, studying under world renowned harpist and pedagogue Alice Chalifoux. She also attended numerous summer study programs at the former Salzedo School in Camden, Maine.

Jody shares her love of the harp with about 20 students of all ages. She is on the faculties of Baldwin Wallace University Conservatory of Music in Berea, Case Western Reserve University, and the Cleveland Institute of Music. Jody plays a Lyon and Healy Style 23 Concert Grand harp.

Our BrownBag Concert Series is funded in part by Ohio Arts Council and Cuyahoga Arts & Culture, and by the generosity of wonderful supporters like you. An opportunity for a free-will offering will be available as you exit the nave towards the piazza. Thank you in advance for your generosity!
