Wear Orange

End Gun Violence

When it was founded, Wear Orange Day was a single day held in memory of Hadiya Pendleton, a high school student from Chicago who was shot and killed on a local playground. Her childhood friends decided to wear orange (the color hunters wear in the woods to protect themselves and others) on June 2, 2015, the day Hadiya would have turned 18. Since then, the program has expanded nationally to a period of three days each year: National Gun Violence Awareness Day (the first Friday in June) and Wear Orange Weekend (the ensuing weekend). This year, Wear Orange will take place from June 7-9.

On Sunday, June 9, please wear orange to church to support this effort to end gun violence in our city, state and country. Click the link below to learn more about the program.
