THE DEAN'S CORNER

The Church Gathers

Members from across the Episcopal Church have begun to gather in Louisville, KY for the 81st general convention. The General Convention is more than a gathering that happens every three years: it is in fact the leadership body of the denomination that we call The Episcopal Church. The General Convention is responsible for everything from governance to prayerbook revision, discipline, and advocacy. Through worship, legislation, and communion, we come together to discern how the Spirit is calling us to serve the world in the years to come...

NEWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Trinity Commons Closed Fridays Through Summer

Trinity Commons will be closed to the public on Fridays this summer. If you have an appointment or other business with Trinity staff on Fridays, please confirm and coordinate access with them.

Avoid Phishing Attempts

Sometimes, scammers use fraudulent digital communications, like text and email, in an attempt to access sensitive information from individuals and databases, like church directories. This is called phishing. You can keep your information and your fellow congregants' information safe by learning how to identify and avoid phishing scams. Take a look at this advice from the FTC on how to recognize and protect yourself from phishing attempts HERE.

Help at the Urban Farm

Join Trinity's Urban Farmers for their Saturday workdays, from 9 a.m.–12 p.m. New volunteers are welcome! You don't need to stay for the whole time, even a half hour is helpful. The Farm is located at the intersection of E. 35th St. and Cedar Ave., less than a mile from Trinity.

Produce from our Urban Farm helps to feed hungry people in our neighborhood. Read more about the history and mission of the Farm. If you have questions or want to know more, contact Scott Blanchard blanchard.scott.w@gmail.com.

Grab a Trinity Yard Sign

Would you like to let your neighbors know about Trinity Cathedral? Do you want to share what makes Trinity so special with others? Pick up a yard sign today! These are especially great to have for Pride month to communicate with the message, "God Loves You. No Exceptions".

If you'd like a sign, please contact Ginger Bitikofer.

If you have a yard sign from last summer, make sure you dust it off and put it back out this year!

Pick Up Your Pride Shirt

Did you order a Pride shirt, but haven't grabbed it yet? When you come to church on Sunday, see Ginger Bitikofer to let her know or email Brett Boardwine to make arrangements for pickup during the week.

There are also a handful of extra red shirts available for purchase. If you would like one, please contact either Ginger Bitikofer or Brett Boardwine.

IN THE DIOCESE

The Diocese of Ohio is part of the worldwide Anglican Communion represented in the United States by The Episcopal Church. It was organized in 1817 and was the first diocese established outside of the original 13 colonies. The first bishop was Philander Chase. Since that time the Diocese has been served by 11 additional bishops. The 12th and current bishop, the Right Reverend Anne B. Jolly was ordained and consecrated as bishop in April 2023.

Education for Ministry (EfM) offered by the Diocese of Ohio

Education for Ministry (EfM) is a four-year program of group study intended to develop a richer foundation for life and ministry. There are five active EfM groups in the Diocese, and they are each enrolling students for the fall. Trinity's Diane Hexter is the EfM Coordinator for our Diocese. EfM covers Hebrew Scripture, the Christian Testament, Church History, and Theology. The program was developed by the School of Theology at the University of the South. Please take time this Summer to discern if EfM is the right next step in your own faith formation.

Contact Diane Hexter (efm@dohio.org) to learn more and to register.

General Convention

The 81st General Convention of The Episcopal Church is scheduled for June 23-28 in Louisville, Kentucky. While online registration has closed, an onsite registration area will be open June 21. Visitor registration fees for the entire convention are $180 at the site. The cost for day visitors is $50 per day. Youth ages 12 to 18 will pay $50 for the whole convention. Access to the exhibit area only is $20 per day.

Visitor registration fees allow access to all areas of General Convention, including visitor galleries in the House of Bishops and House of Deputies, legislative committee rooms and hearings, the exhibit area, and worship services.

All registrants will be required to show a photo ID and sign a liability waiver and photo release agreement when they pick up their badge at the registration area.
