Black Lives Matter: A Love Story with Vincent Lloyd River's Edge, Cleveland, OH Saturday, October 12 from 9 - 11:30 a.m.

The news is filled with stories of police brutality, Black Lives Matter protests, mass incarceration, poverty, and environmental racism, leaving us overwhelmed at the violence facing the black community. How did we get here? What can we do about it? Why does the church often fall deafeningly silent?

Come explore these questions as we learn about a movement towards racial justice grounded in the same love that is central to the Christ story and the beloved community. Envision what racial justice really looks like and reflect on how struggle and worship can be one in the same. For more information and registration link click here.
