Important News: Food for Families Hiatus

*Click here for the full message from Dale Murphy*

"The decision has been made to put Food for Families on hiatus starting in October. We will hold our regular September (Friday, Sept 13 at the usual time) school pantry at Marion-Sterling, as promised to our recipients and in fulfilling our contract with the Greater Cleveland Food Bank. Our contract with the Food Bank goes from October thru September. At this time, we will not be renewing the contract, however, if in the near future (within the next year) we decide to reinstate the program, we have the option to renew at that time."

"At the heart of our re-evaluation is our mission/commitment to feed the hungry in our neighborhood. We will be exploring ways to continue this mission/commitment. We have found the neighborhood is evolving and we need to adapt to those changes."

Reflections:

A Study of Galatians

Join us for a 7-week study led by Phyllis Mitchell and Linda Lee on the book of Galatians. In this section of the Bible, Paul is writing to a split church in Galatia, debating whether Gentiles should be able to receive salvation or if they must follow Mosaic Law.

Come learn how Paul answers the question of whether we receive God's grace through faith and/or works. The sessions will meet Sunday mornings during the 10:10 am education hour on September 15, 22, and 29, October 20 and 27, and November 3 and 10.

Books to enhance your study are available for $20 and will be on sale on Sunday mornings starting August 25th or by contacting Becky Fuller. The books are optional, but will help deepen your study. All are welcome to attend one or all sessions.

Black Lives Matter: A Love Story with Vincent Lloyd River's Edge, Cleveland, OH
Saturday, October 12 from 9 - 11:30 a.m.

The news is filled with stories of police brutality, Black Lives Matter protests, mass incarceration, poverty, and environmental racism, leaving us overwhelmed at the violence facing the black community. How did we get here? What can we do about it? Why does the church often fall deafeningly silent?

Come explore these questions as we learn about a movement towards racial justice grounded in the same love that is central to the Christ story and the beloved community. Envision what racial justice really looks like and reflect on how struggle and worship can be one in the same. For more information and registration link click here.
