This Sunday, Sept. 22

The Rev. David Bargetzi will preach at all three services

Click here to view this week's lectionary

8 a.m. Early Eucharist

9 a.m. Mostly Jazz Mass & Children's Chapel

11:15 a.m. Choral Eucharist

Children's Chapel - Children in grades Pre-K through 5 are invited to gather in the chapel during the 9 a.m. worship service, after the procession and opening prayer.

10:10 a.m. Dean's Forum, Passion and Purpose: A Spirituality of Giving Join Dean Owens in Cathedral Hall as he explores how Christian and Jewish traditions of generosity and giving seek to connect our passions to God's dream for the world.

10:10 a.m. A Study of Galatians | Community Gospel Reflections

We will continue our 7-week study led by Phyllis Mitchell and Linda Lee on the book of Galatians. Paul is writing to a split church in Galatia, debating whether Gentiles should be able to receive salvation or if they must follow Mosaic Law. Come learn how Paul answers the question of whether we receive God's grace through faith and/or works. More information below.

10:10 a.m. Godly Play & Youth Group Children, youth and teens are welcome to participate in Godly Play or Youth Group, based on age/grade level. More information below.

12:30 p.m. Becoming Beloved Community Brown Bag

Lunch Following the 11:15 a.m. service, we will discuss housing discrimination and view a related documentary in anticipation of Trinity's upcoming Undesign the Redline exhibit. Bring your own lunch or purchase one either at Café Ah Roma or Subway. More details below.

12:30 p.m. International Day of Peace-Climate Action for Peace

service outside the Commons at the Trinity Cathedral Peace Pole will take place after the 11:15 a.m. service. Join us in music, prayers and a chance to join millions of others in this worldwide day of recognition of our common journey for climate health and peace. The United Nations first adopted this day in 1981 as the International Day of Prayer for Peace, and subsequently officially set September 21 each year as the International Day of Peace.

"Love Your Neighbor" Signs

Perhaps you've seen some of these "Love Your Neighbor" yard signs (pictured at the beginning of this email) in the Trinity parking lot and garden, and wondered how to get one? Trinity has ten (10) of these one-sided signs, without the yard stakes, available for our members & friends to purchase, for $5, while supplies last. Perhaps put one in your window, or add your own yard stakes.

Contact Ginger Bitikofer, 216-774-0407 or gbitikofer@trinitycleveland.org.

We also have five (5) two-sided yard signs (with stakes) for $15. For all purchases, we accept cash, or check payable to Trinity Cathedral.

If you wish to purchase other items with this design, see <http://www.allsoulsdc.org/neighbor>.

Community Gospel

Reflections:

A Study of Galatians

Join us for a study series led by Phyllis Mitchell and Linda Lee on the book of Galatians. In this section of the Bible, Paul is writing to a split church in Galatia, debating whether Gentiles should be able to receive salvation or if they must follow Mosaic Law.

Come learn how Paul answers the question of whether we receive God's grace through faith and/or works. The sessions will meet Sunday mornings during the 10:10 am education hour on September 22 and 29, October 20 and 27, and November 3 and 10.

Books to enhance your study are available for $20 and will be on sale on Sunday mornings starting August 25th or by contacting Becky Fuller. The books are optional, but will help deepen your study. All are welcome to attend one or all sessions.

BECOMING BELOVED COMMUNITY

AN EPISCOPAL JOURNEY TO RACIAL HEALING, RECONCILIATION & JUSTICE

Becoming Beloved Community September Brown Bag Lunch

Sunday, September 22, after the 11:15 am service

Join our Becoming Beloved Community ministry group for discussion and planning related to racial reconciliation, healing and justice-making in our community. In anticipation of Trinity's upcoming Undesign the Redline exhibition, the group will discuss housing discrimination. Bring your own lunch or purchase one either at Café Ah Roma or Subway. If you will be purchasing a lunch from the Café or Subway, we suggest ordering prior to worship so it will be ready for pick-up after the service.

Project 400: Our Lived Experience Conference Cleveland State University

Friday, Sept. 27 and Sat, September 28

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Henry Louis Gates, Jr.

Members of Becoming Beloved Community invite you to join them for this two-day event which begins a year-long observation of the arrival of the first Africans brought to the British Colonies in North America in 1619. Come and examine slavery's foundational significance to the historic and contemporary challenges faced by African-Americans, acknowledging the obstacles that have been overcome while highlighting those that still remain. For registration and additional information click here.

Sacred Space

Tuesday, Oct. 2, 6:30 p.m.

Sacred Space is an ongoing group experience that offers an opportunity to explore a variety of spiritual practices and reflect on our efforts to live faithfully. Newcomers are always welcome.

Autumn Reflections is the theme for the October Sacred Space meeting. Fall is a time for harvesting. What are you harvesting at this time? Fall is a time for letting go. What are you letting go of right now? And fall is a time to gather what you will need for the winter ahead. What are you gathering as you look ahead? Please join us for an evening of reflection and sharing. Questions? Please contact Charlotte Nichols at cdn216@gmail.com

Sunday School is Back!
*Registration Available Online*

Please contact Allie Heeter at aheeter@trinitycleveland.org for more information about any of the Trinity programs for children, youth and/or families with children listed below:

Sunday School began on Sunday, Sept. 8 and registration is still available online. If you haven't registered yet, click here to register your child(ren) and youth.

Youth (Grades 6-12): Registration is now open for the 2019 Diocesan Youth Event (DYE). DYE is an annual weekend retreat open to all youth in grades 6-12 in the Episcopal Diocese of Ohio. This year, DYE is themed "Science Fair" and we will use activities like baking sourdough, testing soil quality, and "slicing and dicing your DNA" to deepen the sense of awe and connection to God and the created world. DYE will be at Bellwether Farm October 4-6, with arrival at 6:00 p.m. on Friday. Families are invited to a special St. Francis Day Eucharist on Sunday, October 6 at 10:00 a.m., after which will be pickup.

Still seeking adult volunteers for Sunday School leadership in the new program year. There are a variety of ways you can help and flexible scheduling is possible.

Music & Art at Trinity

MUSIC & ART
TRINITY CATHEDRAL

BROWN BAG
CONCERT SERIES

The Trinity Cathedral BrownBag Concert Series was established in 1978 in the centuries-old Anglican tradition of providing quality music free-of-charge for urban dwellers and workers in the acoustical and architectural splendor of a cathedral. This series is a vital part of the downtown Cleveland arts scene and hosts over 5,000 guests annually from over 42 zip-codes, from newborns to centenarians, able to disabled. All are welcome!

The 42nd Trinity Cathedral music season begins on Oct. 2.

The 2019/20 concert season marks 42 years of continuous noontime concerts that have served over 257,000 guests and hosted 13,900 local, regional, national, and international performers.

Black Lives Matter: A Love Story with Vincent Lloyd

River's Edge, Cleveland, OH

Saturday, October 12 from 9 - 11:30 a.m.

The news is filled with stories of police brutality, Black Lives Matter protests, mass incarceration, poverty, and environmental racism, leaving us overwhelmed at the violence facing the black community.

How did we get here? What can we do about it? Why does the church often fall deafeningly silent?

Come explore these questions as we learn about a movement towards racial justice grounded in the same love that is central to the Christ story and the beloved community. Envision what racial justice really looks like and reflect on how struggle and worship can be one in the same. For more information and registration link click here.
