QUICK GUIDE

- Congregational Life
- Family Ministries at Trinity
- Music & Art at Trinity
Beginning Oct. 22, Scott Blanchard will join Trinity staff as our new Communications Manager. He brings over twenty years of corporate marketing and communications experience to the communications manager role including positions at Americhem Inc. and the Kirby Company, two Northeast Ohio manufacturers. He specializes in media and public relations, marketing strategy, branding, digital and traditional communications. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in journalism from Ohio University and an MBA from Cleveland State.

Thank you, also, to Pam Turos who has led Trinity's communications for almost a year now through her nonprofit communications firm, Good Cause Creative. Pam has been an invaluable resource to me as I have gotten started here and has served Trinity well in this time of transition. She has also been an indispensable part of bringing Undesign the Redline to Trinity Commons and helping it to be a successful community partnership.

UNDESIGN THE REDLINE
An Interactive Exhibit at Trinity Cathedral
Make plans to join us for: Undesign the Redline, a transformative exhibit exploring the history of race, class and U.S. housing policy. Participants, led by trained docent volunteers, will learn how the legacy of inequity and exclusion continues to shape Cleveland and the United States. Trinity Cathedral is hosting this exhibit from October 7 through December 20.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Weds., Nov. 6, 7:30 p.m. - Cleveland Leadership & Racial Equity: Speakers forum with guests Mordecai Cargill and Evelyn Burnett, former Cleveland Neighborhood Progress employees, racial equity experts and co-founders of ThirdSpace Action Lab whose work is challenging the city of Cleveland to respond in new ways to the reality that "there are not enough spaces in Cleveland designed with people of color in mind."

Weds., Dec. 4, 7:30 p.m. - Speaker Panel: Hear from local non-profit professionals, community activists and organizers who will share their experiences and perspectives on efforts to "Undesign the Redline" in Greater Cleveland.

Registration details for all of these events, public sessions and private tours are now available online. Please contact Antoinette Taylor at SoulCollage

Saturday, October 19, 9:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

SoulCollage is a fun process that anyone can do. Participants make collaged cards that mirror various aspects of oneself and one's experiences. Card making materials and snacks are provided. There is no charge for the workshop, but there will be a free-will offering to cover the cost of the materials. Advance registration is required. For further information, please contact Charlotte Nichols at cdn216@gmail.com.
Candy Donations! Helping our neighbors

Guild members at Historic St. Andrew's Episcopal Church are holding an alternative Halloween event called Trunk or Treat, for children in the Central neighborhood. They are seeking bags of wrapped candy for this event. If you'd like to donate candy, please bring it to the front desk by Sunday, October 20.

Get Acquainted Brunch
Sunday, Oct. 20, 12:45 p.m.

Newcomers and new members are invited to attend a casual brunch with staff and congregational leaders, after the 11:15 service on Sunday, October 20.

Reflections:

A Study of Galatians

Join us for a study series led by Phyllis Mitchell and Linda Lee on the book of Galatians. In this section of the Bible, Paul is writing to a split church in Galatia, debating whether Gentiles should be able to receive salvation or if they must follow Mosaic Law.

Come learn how Paul answers the question of whether we receive God’s grace through faith and/or works. The remaining sessions will meet Sunday mornings during the 10:10 am education hour on October 20 and 27, and November 3 and 10.

Guest Preacher | Forum
Sunday, Oct. 27

The Rev. Brad Purdom, Canon for Congregations & Christian Formation in our Diocese, will be our guest preacher and forum presenter.

Episcopal Peace Fellowship (EPF): "In Our Backyard- A Christian Perspective on Human Trafficking in the United States" by Nita Belles
Our local Episcopal Peace Fellowship group is sponsoring a Human Trafficking Book Reading and Lunch Gathering at the Hotspot Café, 1332 Carnegie. This particular book and discussion would be especially valuable for parents and young adults in every community in northeast Ohio.

Nita Belles is an author, a compelling keynote speaker, and a leading national expert in the anti-human trafficking movement. Her work has been featured by CNN, Fox Files, BBC, NPR, Focus on the Family, USA Today, the Huffington Post, and many others. She is known for her compassionate heart, for being a friend to survivors, and for working with other to find solutions when there is seemingly no hope. She is the founder and executive director of a nonprofit which shares the name In Our Backyard. You may see more about her organization at www.inourbackyard.org. Family Ministries at Trinity

Sunday School Resumes

Children's Chapel will take place during the 9:00 a.m. service. Sunday school and youth group will take place at 10:10 a.m. during the Education Hour, upstairs in the Children, Youth and Family Center.

Donate Candy | St. Andrew's in Cleveland is hosting a "Trunk or Treat" event on Saturday, Oct. 26. This is a safe and fun alternative to traditional Trick'or'Treat for children who may not have a place to Trick 'or' Treat in their own neighborhoods. Help us support this endeavor by donating some bags of candy to pass out at the event. Bring your bags on Sunday and give to Allie Heeter or Ginger Bitikofer.

Still seeking adult volunteers for Sunday School leadership in the new program year. There are a variety of ways you can help and flexible scheduling is possible.

Volunteer Days at Bellwether Farm

Join us on Saturday, October 19; or Wednesday, October 30 from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. for a volunteer farm day at Bellwether Farm. Register through Eventbrite. Volunteering on Bellwether Farm’s 1.5 acre farm is an experience like no other. Spend the morning learning about regenerative farming while harvesting, processing, weeding and building community in the process. Our goal is that everyone who steps foot on the farm walks away with a newfound reverence for our soil and the hands who spend day in and out growing the food that nourishes us all. No experience is required and we welcome all ages. Please wear close-toed shoes and bring a water bottle. We do ask that you try and stay for the entire volunteer block if possible. We’ll send you home with some farm produce as a thank you for your time and investment in our community.

In the Community

Circle the City With Love
Public Square
October 20, 1:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Circle the City with Love was conceived in spring 2016, the vision of Sr. Rita Petruziello CSJ who hoped for a peaceful event in our cities to show the unifying and transformative power of love to the world. Her vision became a reality through the efforts of a dedicated and inclusive group of men and women. Trinity’s contact/coordinator for this will be Rob Bauer robinbauer1@hotmail.com or call 330-309-6248.

Join us for an afternoon where we will stand in silence for 30 min. with the intention of spreading love into our city and world. Click here for details.

Fr. Harry Bury: My Life as a Maverick Priest
Baldwin Wallace, Oct. 23, 7:30 p.m.
Event is free and open to the public.

Former BW professor Fr. Harry Bury will speak about his life as a maverick priest and his book, "Maverick Priest: A Story of Life on the Edge."

Father Harry J. Bury is a Catholic priest unlike any you have ever met, and his life reads like an adventure novel. Against all odds and with unwavering faith, he carries his message of love, peace and non-violence as a priest, political activist and warrior for peace.

Bury's travels throughout the world span over 60 years. He found himself in compromising and often dangerous situations with American law enforcement, foreign governments and the church alike. He was kidnapped in Gaza and arrested at the Pentagon. He participated in the release of American POWs in Vietnam, served at the side of Mother Teresa in Calcutta and was awarded the key to Ho Chi Minh City in gratitude for his efforts to end the war in Vietnam.
