A Message From the Dean
Giving and Growing

Can you recall a time you committed to something that you knew might not be easy? Perhaps you embarked on a new but uncertain chapter in your life, or perhaps you took on a new responsibility in the community. Perhaps, if you’re especially adventurous, you tried to learn a new language or a new cuisine to cook.

Or, perhaps you found yourself having to grow into the challenging work that comes amid the transitions of life: when we become parents for the first time, when we become caregivers for aging parents, or when dealing with a new diagnosis or a sudden life change, we suddenly find that we must grow in order to be present in the new moment.

"To me, giving to church is a lifelong practice. To me, stewardship is the care we take to ensure that our church will last. As a place has been made for us and kept for us by generations before, it is the place we keep for the generations to come." Trinity member, Beth Billings, reflecting on Trinity’s importance in her life.

UNDESIGN THE REDLINE
An Interactive Exhibit at Trinity Cathedral

Make plans to join us for: Undesign the Redline, a transformative exhibit exploring the history of race, class and U.S. housing policy.
Participants, led by trained docent volunteers, will learn how the legacy of inequity and exclusion continues to shape Cleveland and the United States. Trinity Cathedral is hosting this exhibit from October 7 through December 20.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Weds., Nov. 6, 7:30 p.m. - Cleveland Leadership & Racial Equity: Speakers forum with guests Mordecai Cargill and Evelyn Burnett, former Cleveland Neighborhood Progress employees, racial equity experts and co-founders of ThirdSpace Action Lab whose work is challenging the city of Cleveland to respond in new ways to the reality that "there are not enough spaces in Cleveland designed with people of color in mind."

Weds., Dec. 4, 7:30 p.m. - Speaker Panel: Hear from local non-profit professionals, community activists and organizers who will share their experiences and perspectives on efforts to "Undesign the Redline" in Greater Cleveland.

Registration details for all of these events, public sessions and private tours are now available online. Please contact Antoinette Taylor at ataylor@dohio.org, Office for Mission, Diocese of Ohio, to register or ask questions.

Community Gospel Reflections: A Study of Galatians

Join us for the last few sessions of a study series led by Phyllis Mitchell and Linda Lee on the book of Galatians. In this section of the Bible, Paul is writing to a split church in Galatia, debating whether Gentiles should be able to receive salvation or if they must follow Mosaic Law.

Come learn how Paul answers the question of whether we receive God's grace through faith and/or works. The remaining sessions will meet Sunday mornings during the 10:10 am education hour on October 27, and November 3 and 10.

Faith in Anxious Times

Sacred Space Meeting
Tuesday, November 5
6:30-8:30 p.m.
In the Chapter Room

We live in anxious times. We experience anxiety in our personal lives, in our communities, in our nation and in our world. What are you anxious about at this time? How do faith and spiritual practice help you live with anxiety? What gives you hope in the midst of anxiety? At the November Sacred Space Meeting, we'll share our stories of anxiety and hope.

Sacred Space is an ongoing group experience that offers an opportunity to explore a variety of spiritual practices and reflect on our efforts to live faithfully. Newcomers are always welcome. For information, please contact Charlotte Nichols at cdn216@gmail.com

News from The Diocese
Volunteer Days at Bellwether Farm

Join us on Wednesday, October 30 from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. for a volunteer farm day at Bellwether Farm. Register through Eventbrite. Volunteering on Bellwether Farm's 1.5 acre farm is an experience like no other. Spend the morning learning about regenerative farming while harvesting, processing, weeding and building community in the process. Our goal is that everyone who steps foot on the farm walks away with a newfound reverence for our soil and the hands who grow the food that nourishes us all. No experience is required and we welcome all ages. Please wear close-toed shoes and bring a water bottle. We do ask that you try and stay for the entire volunteer block if possible. We'll send you home with some farm produce as a thank you for your time and investment in our community.
