UNDESIGN THE REDLINE
An Interactive Exhibit at Trinity Cathedral
Make plans to join us for: Undesign the Redline, a transformative exhibit exploring the history of race, class and U.S. housing policy. Participants, led by trained docent volunteers, will learn how the legacy of inequity and exclusion continues to shape Cleveland and the United States. Trinity Cathedral is hosting this exhibit from October 7 through December 20.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Oct. 20, 1:00 p.m. & 2:30 p.m. - Trolley Tours of Cleveland neighborhoods affected by redlining with tour guide from our community partner Campus District, Inc. Tours are free, but reservations are required.

Weds., Nov. 6, 7:30 p.m. - Cleveland Leadership & Racial Equity: Speakers forum with guests Mordecai Cargill and Evelyn Burnett, former Cleveland Neighborhood Progress employees, racial equity experts and co-founders of ThirdSpace Action Lab whose work is challenging the city of Cleveland to respond in new ways to the reality that "there are not enough spaces in Cleveland designed with people of color in mind."

Weds., Dec. 4, 7:30 p.m. - Speaker Panel: Hear from local non-profit professionals, community activists and organizers who will share their experiences and perspectives on efforts to "Undesign the Redline" in Greater Cleveland.

Registration details for all of these events, public sessions and private tours are now available online. Please contact Antoinette Taylor at attaylor@dohio.org, Office for Mission, Diocese of Ohio, to register or ask questions.

Trinity Member Spotlight

Lorna Hartling, an accomplished
violist and daughter of Trinity member Delores Wilson, will be inducted into Shaker Schools Alumni Hall of Fame on October 12.

Ms. Hartling will be recognized for her significant contributions to arts and culture as a member of the world-renowned Deutsche Symphonie Orchester Berlin. A graduate of the Cleveland Institute of Music and CWRU, she has worked and performed with Leonard Bernstein. Other notable accomplishments include a benefit concert Ms. Hartling organized following Sept. 11 to support families affected by the tragedy and a 2004 benefit concert in the South African Embassy honoring the ten-year anniversary of Apartheid. Read more here.

SoulCollage

Saturday, October 19, 9:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
SoulCollage is a fun process that anyone can do. Participants make collaged cards that mirror various aspects of oneself and one's experiences. Card making materials and snacks are provided. There is no charge for the workshop, but there will be a free-will offering to cover the cost of the materials. Advance registration is required. For further information, please contact Charlotte Nichols at cdn216@gmail.com.
Candy Donations! Helping our neighbors

Guild members at Historic St. Andrew's Episcopal Church are holding an alternative Halloween event called Trunk or Treat, for children in the Central neighborhood. They are seeking bags of wrapped candy for this event. If you'd like to donate candy, please bring it to the front desk by Sunday, October 20.

Get Acquainted Brunch

Green Team Forum | Green Space & Water Quality
Wednesday, Oct. 23, 7:30 p.m.

Come and hear West Creek Conservancy’s Executive Director Derek Schafer speak about land and water protection in our community. Learn about the Conservancy’s efforts in the region to protect land and water resources, create recreational trail systems, and reclaim degraded lands. Also, learn how we can all be good stewards and make a difference in the vitality of our community and our Great Lake!

Episcopal Peace Fellowship (EPF): "In Our Backyard- A Christian Perspective on Human Trafficking in the United States" by Nita Belles
Saturday, Oct. 26, 12:00 p.m.

Our local Episcopal Peace Fellowship group is sponsoring a Human Trafficking Book Reading and Lunch Gathering at the Hotspot Café, 1332 Carnegie. This particular book and discussion would be especially valuable for parents and young adults in every community in northeast Ohio.

Nita Belles is an author, a compelling keynote speaker, and a leading national expert in the anti-human trafficking movement. Her work has been featured by CNN, Fox Files, BBC, NPR, Focus on the...
Family, USA Today, the Huffington Post, and many others. She is known for her compassionate heart, for being a friend to survivors, and for working with other to find solutions when there is seemingly no hope. She is the founder and executive director of a nonprofit which shares the name In Our Backyard. You may see more about her organization at www.inourbackyard.org.

Community Gospel

Reflections:

A Study of Galatians

Join us for a study series led by Phyllis Mitchell and Linda Lee on the book of Galatians. In this section of the Bible, Paul is writing to a split church in Galatia, debating whether Gentiles should be able to receive salvation or if they must follow Mosaic Law.

Come learn how Paul answers the question of whether we receive God's grace through faith and/or works. The remaining sessions will meet Sunday mornings during the 10:10 am education hour on October 20 and 27, and November 3 and 10.

All Saints Baptisms The Sacrament of Holy Baptism will be offered on Sunday, November 3, at the 11:15 service. If you are interested in baptism for yourself or a family member, please contact a clergy person or Ginger Bitikofer: gbitikofer@trinitycleveland.org Liturgy of Welcome  New members are invited to join us on Sunday, November 10, for a Liturgy of Welcome, at all three services.

Family Ministries at Trinity

No Sunday School This Week

Children, youth and their families are invited to join us for the Ministry Fair before/after services. Children's Chapel will take place during the 9:00 a.m. service.

Donate Candy | St. Andrew's in Cleveland is hosting a "Trunk or Treat" event on Saturday, Oct. 26. This is a safe and fun alternative to traditional Trick'or'Treat for children who may not have a place to Trick 'or' Treat in their own neighborhoods. Help us support this endeavor by donating some bags of candy to pass out at the event. Bring your bags on Sunday and give to Allie Heeter or Ginger Bitikofer.

Still seeking adult volunteers for Sunday School leadership in the new program year. There are a variety of ways you can help and flexible scheduling is possible.

The 2019/20 concert season marks 42 years of continuous noontime concerts that have served over 257,000 guests and hosted 13,900 local, regional, national, and international performers.

News from The Diocese
Volunteer Days at Bellwether Farm

Join us on Saturday, October 19; or Wednesday, October 30 from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. for a volunteer farm day at Bellwether Farm. Register through Eventbrite. Volunteering on Bellwether Farm's 1.5 acre farm is an experience like no other. Spend the morning learning about regenerative farming while harvesting, processing, weeding and building community in the process. Our goal is that everyone who steps foot on the farm walks away with a newfound reverence for our soil and the hands who spend day in and out growing the food that nourishes us all. No experience is required and we welcome all ages. Please wear close-toed shoes and bring a water bottle. We do ask that you try and stay for the entire volunteer block if possible. We'll send you home with some farm produce as a thank you for your time and investment in our community.

In the Community

Black Lives Matter: A Love Story with Vincent Lloyd
River’s Edge, Cleveland, OH
Saturday, October 12 from 9 - 11:30 a.m.

The news is filled with stories of police brutality, Black Lives Matter protests, mass incarceration, poverty, and environmental racism, leaving us overwhelmed at the violence facing the black community. How did we get here? What can we do about it? Why does the church often fall deafeningly silent?

Come explore these questions as we learn about a movement towards racial justice grounded in the same love that is central to the Christ story and the beloved community. Envision what racial justice really looks like and reflect on how struggle and worship can be one in the same. For more information and registration link click here.

Kent State University: Professor Jodi Magness, "The Archeology of Qumran and the Dead Sea Scrolls" (Free)
Thursday, October 17, 6:00pm to 7:00pm

In 1946-1947, the first Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered by accident near the site of Qumran. Eventually, the remains of approximately 1000 scrolls were found in 11 caves surrounding Qumran. In this slide-illustrated lecture, we explore the archaeological remains of Qumran, which was inhabited by members of a Jewish sect who deposited the scrolls in the nearby caves and examine the meaning and significance of the scrolls. Circle the City With Love

Public Square

October 20, 1:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Circle the City with Love was conceived in spring 2016, the vision of Sr. Rita Petruziello CSJ who hoped for a peaceful event in our cities to show the unifying and transformative power of love to the world. Her vision became a reality through the efforts of a dedicated and inclusive group of men and women. Trinity's contact/coordinator for this will be Rob Bauer robinbauer1@hotmail.com or call 330-309-6248.

Join us for an afternoon where we will stand in silence for 30 min. with the intention of spreading love into our city and world. Click here for details.
The deadline to submit program updates or events for the weekly e-news, This Week @ Trinity, is the Tuesday before each Thursday publication date, please send to news@trinitycleveland.org.

You can read the current issue of Cathedral Connections online, or pick up your monthly newsletter in the Piazza during all church services. Please contact Ginger Bitikofer at gbitikofer@trinitycleveland.org to receive a printed copy at home.
