CHURCH

A Sacred Place for All People

11:15 AM CHORAL EUCHARIST

November 22, 2026
Last Sunday after Pentecost
Christ the King Sunday

THE MISSION OF TRINITY CATHEDRAL IS TO PROCLAIM IN WORD AND ACTION GOD'S JUSTICE, LOVE AND MERCY FOR ALL CREATION.

Welcome to Trinity Cathedral

We're so glad you're here to worship with us! We know that visiting a new church can feel overwhelming, and wherever you are on your journey of faith, you are welcome here. Everything you need for worship can be found in this bulletin, and you're invited to participate as much or as little as feels comfortable.

Below are quick ways to learn more about our community, and we hope you'll also let us know you joined us today. We'd love to stay connected! More announcements can be found in the back of this bulletin.

Please stick around for coffee hour after worship in the Chapter Room.

Franz Liszt (1811-1886), transcribed Max Reger (1873-1916)

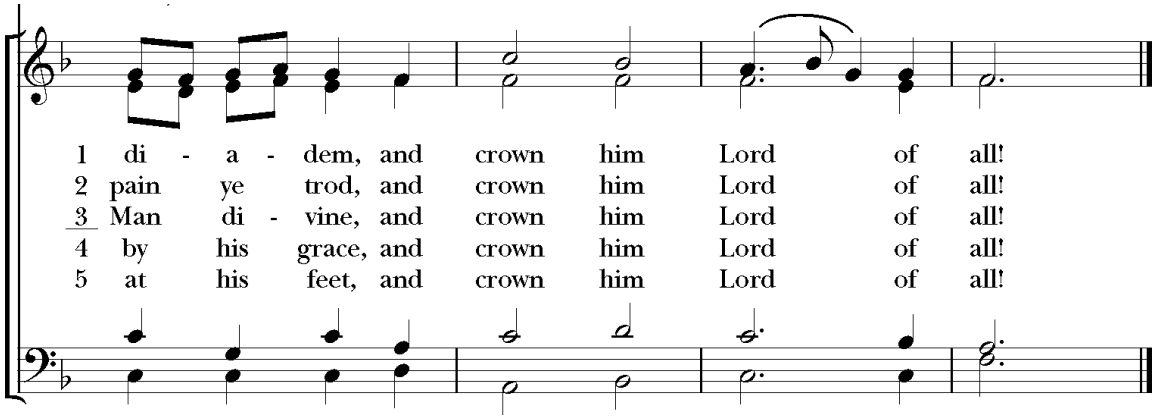

The congregation stands in body or spirit.

Opening Hymn 450

1982 HYMNAL

All Hail The Power Of Jesus' Name

6 Let every kindred, every tribe,
on this terrestrial ball,
to him all majesty ascribe,
and crown him Lord of all!

Words: Edward Perronet (1726-1792), alt. Music: Coronation, Oliver Holden (1765-1844), alt.;
desc. Michael E. Young (b. 1939) Copyright ©1979, G.I.A. Publications, Inc. All right reserved. Used with permission.

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Benedictus es, Domine

Music: John Rutter (b. 1945). Copyright © 1985 Oxford University Press, Inc.

The Collect

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The congregation sits.

The First Lesson

Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24

Thus says the Lord God: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord God. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice. Therefore, thus says the Lord God to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide, I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. And I, the Lord, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the Lord, have spoken.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 95:1-7a (sung by the choir)

Chant: George Clement Martin (1844–1916)

Come, let us sing to the Lord;
    let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.
Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.
For the Lord is a great God,
    and a great King above all gods.
In his hand are the caverns of the earth,
    and the heights of the hills are his also.
The sea is his, for he made it,
    and his hands have molded the dry land.
Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee,
    and kneel before the Lord our Maker.
For he is our God,
    and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

The Second Lesson

Ephesians 1:15-23

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

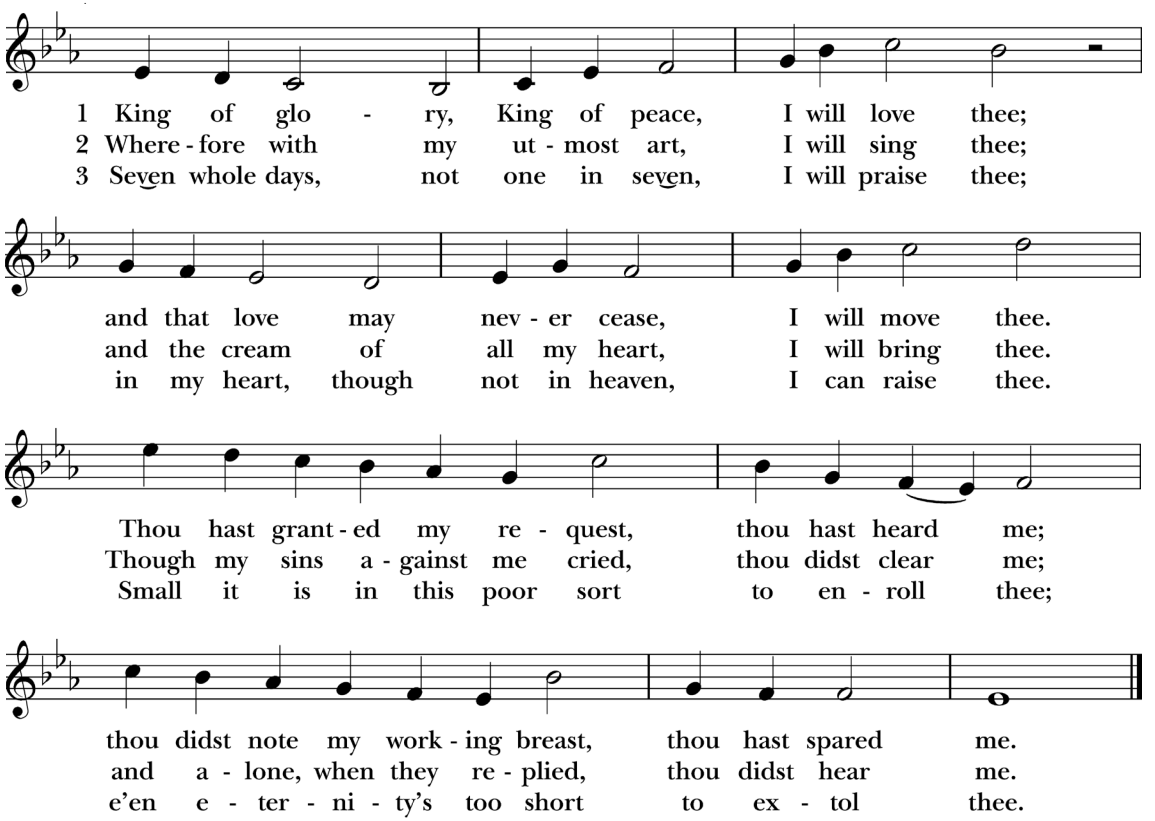

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Matthew 25:31-46

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.' Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?' Then he will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The congregation sits after the preacher's opening words.

The Sermon

The Rev. Canon Adrienne Koch

The congregation stands in body or spirit at the invitation of the celebrant.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

We pray for the churches of the world, that God will rouse the careless, revive the faint-hearted, and strengthen the faithful. Guide us, O Christ.

We pray for bishops and others who lead Christian communities around the world, especially for Sean, our Presiding Bishop, for Anne, our own Bishop, that God will bless and keep them. Hear us, O Christ.

We pray for leaders of nations, especially in the United States, that God will enlighten them and guide them in paths of justice and peace. Lead us, O Christ.

We pray for our neighbors, that they may see in our words and actions the Kingdom of God coming near. Strengthen us, O Christ.

We pray for all priests, deacons, monks, nuns, religious sisters and brothers, and all those who have consecrated their lives to God, that they may have courage and joy in their vocations and uphold our world in prayer. Bless us, O Christ.

We pray for all who suffer in body, mind, or spirit, especially… that they may find comfort and wholeness. Heal us, O Christ.

We pray for all who have died, especially… May the light of Christ shine upon them.

We pray for our partners in mission, especially… that together with them, we may build the Kingdom of God. Unite us, O Christ.

We ask for blessings upon those celebrating birthdays….

Celebrant Lord Jesus Christ, you are the beginning and end of all things. You have made your Church to be a people that who bear witness to the goodness and beauty of your kingdom. By your Holy Spirit, you have united us as one body, called us to live as one family of God. Hear our prayers and fill our hearts with your grace. Be close to the vulnerable and marginalized, and give us the patience to share one another's burdens, that we might always be friends of the truth of your coming. Amen.

~Adapted from prayers by the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania.

Confession and Absolution

Let us confess our sins to God.

Celebrant and People

God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of Christ be always with you.
People And also with you.

The congregation shares with one another a sign of peace and then sits.

Welcome and Announcements

Offertory Sentence

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Anthem at the Offertory

Ain'a that good news!

Text: Trad. Spiritual
Music: William L. Dawson (1899 - 1990)

I've got a crown up in the Kingdom, ain'a that good news!

I'm a-goin' to lay down this worl', goin'a shoulder up my cross, goin'a take it home to my Jesus, ain'a that good news!

I got a harp up in-a the Kingdom, ain'a that good news!

I got a robe up in-a the Kingdom, ain'a that good news!

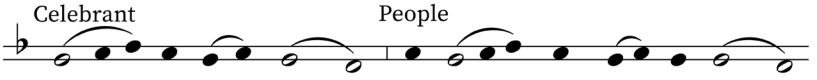

I got a Savior in-a the Kingdom, Ain't that good news!

The congregation stands in body or spirit at the invitation of the celebrant.

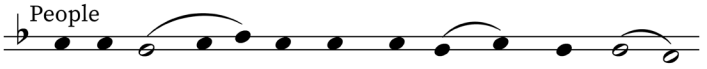

The Great Thanksgiving

Prayer C Expanded Language-Dialogic

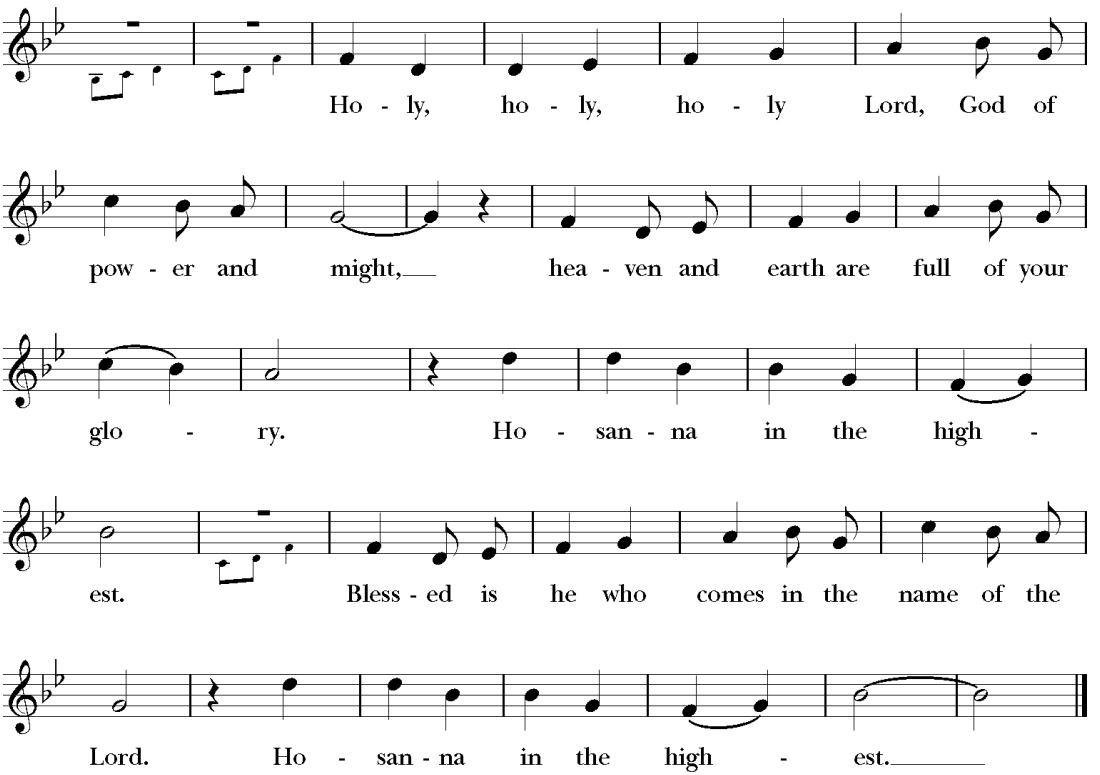

Celebrant God of all power, Source and Sustainer of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise. Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: shining light and enfolding dark; the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, and this fragile earth, our island home. By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with the capacity for memory, reason, and skill. You made us the stewards of your creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another. Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your eternal Word, born of your servant Mary, to fulfill your Law, opening for us the way of freedom and peace. By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving, We celebrate Christ's death and resurrection as we await the day of his coming.

Therefore, O God, we who have been redeemed by Jesus Christ, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Savior.

Sanctify us also, and let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name. Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

God of our ancestors; Redeemer and Mother of Israel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only and not for strength; for pardon only and not for renewal.

Accept these prayers and praises, Almighty God, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

As the priest places the host in your hand, they say:

The Body of Christ, the Bread of Heaven. Amen.
The Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation. Amen.

All are invited to come forward for Communion or a blessing. Bread and wine are both offered, though drinking from the common cup is not required. If you choose to receive wine, please refrain from intinction (dipping bread in the wine) at this time. Gluten-free bread is available for those who need it. After communion the congregation sits.

Anthem at Communion

Let Us Love In Deed And Truth

Text: I John 3:17-23 (adapt.)
Music: Larry King (1932-1990)

If anyone has the world's goods, and sees his neighbor in need,
Yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him?
Let us not love in word or speech, but in deed and in truth.
By this we shall know that we are of the truth.

We have confidence before our God, and we receive from him whatever we ask,
Because we keep his commandments, and do what pleases him.
And this is his commandment, that we should believe in his Son, Jesus Christ,
And love one another.

The Sending of Eucharistic Visitors (When needed)

Celebrant In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these Holy gifts to N., that those to whom you go may share with us in the body and blood of Christ.

People We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup. Amen.

The Postcommunion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

The congregation stands in body or spirit.

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of Christ, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Savior. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Jesus Shall Reign Where'er The Sun

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748), alt. Music: Duke Street, John Hatton (d. 1793).

The Dismissal

Celebrant Let us go forth in the name of Christ.
People Thanks be to God.
